FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City of Port St. Lucie Gives Young Adults and Teens a Chance to Have Their Voices Heard with a Recreational Youth Questionnaire

PORT ST. LUCIE, FL (Aug. 22, 2016) – Adults aren't the only ones who can have a say in what happens in their local government. The City of Port St. Lucie's Parks & Recreation Department wants to hear from teens and young adults.

Beginning today, residents between the ages of 13 to 20 have a quick, easy way to give the City their opinions regarding recreational opportunities and programs.

The City is encouraging residents in this age group to click on www.CityofPsl.com/survey to participate in a leisure needs analysis survey. Please share this link with classmates, teammates, neighbors and friends.

Participants will answer questions about their interest levels in a wide range of activities, give their opinions on City parks and facilities and the need for specific activities in the future.

The survey will be available for one year. The Parks & Recreation Department will use the results to help plan and prioritize future projects in the City.
