FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The City of Port St. Lucie is aware that Troy Edrington is charged with unlawfully impersonating another individual to fraudulently obtain $25,000. The City is alarmed at the situation and has initiated an investigation to ensure that City dollars and resources have not been implicated. Mr. Edrington is currently on unpaid administrative leave as of Friday, June 24 and his access to City computers and other resources has been suspended. This is an ongoing investigation and the City is unable to comment on the future terms of his employment at this time. Additional information will be forthcoming.
