For Immediate Release:

SUBJECT: Port St. Lucie Police participates in the Click It or Ticket seat belt enforcement campaign

Beginning May 23, 2016 through June 5, 2016, the Port St. Lucie Police Department's traffic unit will be out in full force to ensure seat belt usage compliance in an effort to minimize injuries in the event of a motor vehicle crash.

Statistics show that occupants of vehicles involved in crashes are safer when wearing their seatbelts. Port St. Lucie Police is concerned for the safety of the tens of thousands of motorists whom travel through the City streets of Port St. Lucie. In an effort to save lives; the Port St. Lucie Police will actively be on the lookout for compliance of the State seat belt laws.

For members of the media wishing to cover the police department's efforts in the National Click It or Ticket campaign; Port St. Lucie Police will make officers available for interviews and there will be ride along opportunities.
