SUBJECT: Need to Identify Deceased Pedestrian Involved in a Traffic Accident

On May 6, 2016 at 0132, Port St Lucie Police responded to the intersection of SW Rosser Blvd/SW Apricot Rd in reference to a traffic accident involving a pedestrian. The pedestrian was pronounced deceased a short while later. The traffic accident investigation is still on-going.

The pedestrian is described as a black male between the ages of 15-18 years old. He has slight facial hair with braces. He was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with "Nike" written in blue across the chest. He had black long shorts with a small "Air Jordan" symbol in gray by the knee area. He also had light blue Adidas sneakers with white soles, size 9 1/2, and a gold Figaro chain with a gold cross covered in clear stones. The pedestrian was carrying a basketball.

The Port St Lucie Police Department is asking for help from the media, in identifying the deceased individual. Please refer all tips to the Port St Lucie Police Department, 772-871-5000.
