PREPARED/RELEASED BY: Frank Sabol

For Immediate Release:

SUBJECT: Port St. Lucie man arrested on multiple auto burglary charges after police recover his prints during the investigation.

On November 4, 2016, Port St. Lucie Police arrested Kevin Paul Parziale (DOB 11/13/90, 790 NW Placid Avenue, Port St. Lucie) on a warrant for auto burglary which occurred during the overnight hours of October 30, 2016 in the 200 block of NW Bayshore Boulevard. Police were able to identify Parziale after identifying him through finger prints recovered during the burglary investigation.

After Parziale's arrest, detectives brought Parziale in to the police station for an interview. During the interview detectives learned that Parziale burglarized three cars on NW Bayshore Boulevard and several other cars in the Magnolia Lakes Development.

On November 7, 2016, Parziale was further charged with 3 additional counts of auto burglary for the Magnolia Lakes car burglaries. In total Parziale was charged with 6 counts of auto burglary, grand theft and petit theft.

After the interview with Parziale, he agreed to have his mother bring in to the police station the items he took during the burglaries. Police sifted through the stolen items and determined that some of the property recovered had not yet been reported stolen. Pictures of the items recovered are attached to this press release.
