For Immediate Release:

SUBJECT: Port St. Lucie man arrested after he robs victim he met on a dating application.

On December 31, 2016, Port St. Lucie Police arrested Cleveland White Jamison (DOB 10/17/90, 526 SW Butler Avenue, Port St. Lucie) on the charges of robbery, aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, grand theft, possession of a weapon by convicted felon, and use of a firearm during the commission of a felony after he robbed the victim that he met on the dating app MeetMe.

On December 30, 2016, police went to the 800 block of SW Nichols Terrace for reports of a robbery. Police met with the victim who told them that he met Jamison on the dating app MeetMe. The victim said that he invited Jamison to his home after they made contact with each other through the dating app. Jamison showed up at the victim's house on December 29, 2016 but left shortly after arriving due to other persons being at the house.

Jamison returned to the house on December 30, 2016 at around 4:00 am when the victim explained that he expected to exchange sexual favors for Marijuana. Once inside the house, Jamison went to the victim's bedroom. Once in the bedroom, Jamison pulled out a handgun and ordered the victim to lay down. Jamison then asked for money and when he was told there was no money he stole the victim's clothes, to include a pair of Michael Jordan's shoes worth $200.00, a phone, gold chain, silver link bracelet and a black watch all totaling around $800.00.

During the next 12 hours, Port St. Lucie Police detectives were able to track Jamison down by pinging the cell phone from information they acquired through the investigation. Police located
