

Vernon Shazier

Vernon serves as a Chaplain and Family Counselor for the National Football Players Fathers Association. For many years he served as a NFL Chaplain with the Miami Dolphins. He is Director of Football Operations at PMR Sports, President of The Champion Leader and the Executive Pastor at Mount Bethel Ministries. He is an innovative leader, author and executive speech coach who upholds the highest standards of personal and professional integrity. He is committed to helping individuals and leaders of all walks of life reach "Championship Status". He is sought after throughout the country as a motivational keynote speaker and lecturer in the areas of leadership, team development and public speaking. He is married to Shawn Shazier and has two sons Ryan and Vernon.

He holds a degree in Bio-Medical Engineering from Keiser University, a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Nova Southeastern University. He is also a graduate of George W. Truett Theological Seminary, Baylor University in Waco, Texas, where he received a Master of Divinity in Theology.

When not serving clients or his church, Vernon enjoys working out, reading, going to the movies with his wife and playing golf.